Kia ora e te whānau,

Your child would like to be part of Kapa Haka at school.

The children will practice once a week in the hall from 1:30-2:15 starting next week. (Y 5/6 children on Thursday and Y 3/4 children on Tuesday). As such, students will not be participating in their normal classroom programme on their allocated day.

Kapa Haka is a commitment, which will mean the children will need to:

- Be on time to practice each week
- Learn the words to the songs between practices
- Bring a positive, 'can-do', 'want to be there' attitude

The Kapa Haka group will be preparing 1 waiata to perform at the cultural parade in week 8 of this term.

Whaea Ringi, will be the tutor for Mainstream Kapa Haka

Please return the slip below if you support your child's participation in Kapa Haka.

If you have any queries, please contact Kōkā Materoa.

Ngā mihi

Kōkā Materoa
