May 2021

Namaste and warm greetings to you all,

Participation in the KNS Indian Cultural Programme 2021

Your child would like to join our Indian Cultural programme for 2021. It is led by Shailaja (Shai) Ravi Kumar, a Knighton parent, KASP staff member, and experienced dance teacher.

The Indian Cultural programme is offered to interested middle and senior students (years 3-6) from any ethnicity and will run every Friday during class time, from 9:40am to 10:40am, in Room 23.

The children will have the opportunity to:

- learn a range of cross-cultural Indian songs and dances
- learn about a range of cultures.
- grow in confidence
- develop leadership skills
- have fun learning with others
- Show their 'Knighton Way' skills
- be involved and feel part of our Indian and school community
- transfer their learning to their classroom programmes.

There may also be opportunities to perform in different cultural events.

Should you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact the KNS office.

Kind Regards,

Diane Cooper dcooper@kns.ac.nz
