Dear Parents/Whānau,

_____ has been chosen to represent Knighton School in a Kī o Rahi tournament against a number of other local primary schools.

The intention is to promote traditional Māori kēmu (games) and encourage participation and the spirit of kotahitanga (unity). As last years champions, Woodstock School will be hosting this years tournament.

We will be leaving Knighton at 8.45 am. The first game will start at 9.45 am and the last game will finish at 2.15pm. We will be back at school by the end of the day.

This day will be a great opportunity for players to improve their Kī o Rahi skills, learn more about the game, and to demonstrate the Knighton Values.

Kī o rahi exchange

Date: Friday, 26th May

Venue: Woodstock School, 21 Woodstock Road

Time: 9:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.
