Classroom Teacher

Term 3 2024 - Akomanga 19

Kia Ora and welcome to Knighton Normal School!

I am excited to welcome the newest students to Knighton and help them with their transition into School.

Email - agoodwin@kns.ac.nz

For the next few weeks we will be learning:

- ★ The Knighton Way - we will be exploring what it means to be a Knighton student, and how to accept each other and shine in our own ways!
- ★ We will focus on 'Whaikaha' - persistence as well as 'Maiatanga' - confidence.
- ★ Learning in the classroom: how to write our names, form letters and to count using materials.
- ★ We will also be learning Classroom routines and how to make friends and support each other in Akomanga 19.

Key dates to remember:

- 27th September - Last day of Term 3

A bit about me:

Based in Hamilton for most of my life, I enjoy walks along the river and visiting beaches near and far! I also enjoy traveling and learning about different cultures.

I have an energetic young Springer Spaniel Dog called Tilly!

An Avid book reader, with a love of music, dancing and drama.

Top tips to Remember:

- ❖ Tuesday - School newsletter is online fortnightly
- ❖ Wednesday is library day - bring back your library book.
- ❖ Once stationery is paid for, students will have a book bag so they can bring home library books and fun home learning!
- ❖ Remember to check into Class Dojo for photos and information!
